HEADLINES

DASH DROP PENULTIMATE GAME

After the Dash shut out Down East on Saturday, Alec Hansen began his start on Sunday with two scoreless innings. But, the Wood Ducks plated three runs in the third and one in the fourth to take a 4-1 lead. Hansen tied a season-high with seven strikeouts. Winston-Salem was held to just two runs, one of which was a solo home run from Ti'Quan Forbes in the ninth inning. Hunter Schryver allowed two runs, ending the Dash bullpen's scoreless streak at 14.2 innings.

CREAM OF THE CROP

Winston currently boasts nine of the top prospects in the Sox system per MLB Pipeline, including infielders Nick Madrigal (No. 4), Gavin Sheets (No. 15) and Laz Rivera (No. 28), outfielders Luis Robert (No. 3), Blake Rutherford (No. 7) and Luis Gonzalez (No. 14), and right-handers Alec Hansen (No. 10), Tyler Johnson (No. 23) and Lincoln Henzman (No. 30).

SILVER MEDALIST

While the Dash will not best the 2012 team in overall wins (87), the 2018 Winston-Salem Dash are now the second-best team in the Dash era (2009-present) with 83 wins, overtaking the 2010 team, which went 81-58 overall under manager Joe McEwing. While the Dash have played in the Mills Cup Championship Series twice, this year's club will try to be the first to claim a Carolina League title since the franchise changed its moniker to the Dash in 2009. Winston-Salem's last title came in 2003 as the Warhogs.

BALLOTS FOR BLAKE

Blake Rutherford is making a case to be named Carolina League MVP. The 21-year-old has helped lead the best offense in the league with 128 hits (T-2nd), 76 RBIs (2nd), a .293 average (5th) and a .439 slugging percentage (8th). A first-round pick by the New York Yankees in 2016, Rutherford was traded to the White Sox in 2017 along with Tyler Clippard, Ian Clarkin and Tito Polo in exchange for David Robertson, Todd Frazier and Tommy Kahnle.

BEST OF THE BEST

After sealing up a first-half Southern Division championship, Winston-Salem now has the fourth-best winning percentage in full-season Minor League Baseball with a .610 mark. Here's a look at the top teams:

- Bowling Green Hot Rods
(Midwest League - A): 89-49 (.645)
- Lakewood BlueClaws
(South Atlantic League - A): 87-50 (.635)
- Rancho Cucamonga Quakes
(California League - A+): 86-53 (.619)
- Winston-Salem Dash
(Carolina League - A+): 83-54 (.606)

MORE THAN LUCK FOR LUIS

After posting an .850 OPS in the first half with Kannapolis, Gonzalez has continued his impressive pace with Winston by posting a team-best .888 OPS. A former third-round pick out of the University of New Mexico, Gonzalez has also smacked 22 doubles, just five shy of the team leader (Sheets). Following a college career in which he had 53 more walks than strikeouts, the 22-year-old has posted the second-lowest strikeout rate (15.9%) on the Dash.

ANOTHER TITLE-WINNING HALF?

With just one game left in the regular season and a first-half title already on the ledger, Winston-Salem has the opportunity to win the second half. The Dash currently lead Buies Creek by one game for the top spot in the Southern Division in the second half. Winston has won both halves twice in the Dash era (2010 & 2012).

DASH DOTS

With a win or a Buies Creek loss, the Dash can clinch a second-half championship...The last time Winston-Salem won both halves was 2012, when the Dash went 44-25 in the first half and 43-26 in the second half...Winston-Salem eventually fell to Lynchburg in the Mills Cups Championship Series... There are currently 10 members of the Dash roster that were with Winston-Salem when the Dash won the first-half title on June 14.

GREENVILLE GROWN, AND COLUMBIA MADE

Prior to joining the South Carolina Gamecocks program, Parke had the makings of becoming the new star in Columbia. Coming out of Greenville High School, Parke was rated by Baseball America as the No. 6 prospect in the state of South Carolina. At 6'3, 215 lbs at that point, the left-hander looked the part of a future ace. However, Parke was ultimately buried in the bullpen with college stars like Braden Webb, Jack Wynkoop and Clarke Schmidt clogging up the rotation. Parke made just four relief appearances during his freshman year, and it was followed by 11 relief appearances as a sophomore. Parke missed his entire junior year due to undergoing Tommy John surgery, and he went 2-1 with a 8.53 ERA in 14 appearances during his senior season. Still, the White Sox ultimately selected the Greenville, S.C., native in the 21st round in 2017.

A CONTROL ARTIST

Parke has proven his abilities to put the ball in the strike zone over his Minor League career before joining Winston-Salem, allowing just 22 walks over 145.0 innings pitched between Low-A Kannapolis and the AZL White Sox. During his time in Arizona and with the Intimidators, the southpaw had not walked more than two batters in a game. Entering the White Sox system with more relief experience than starting experience, Parke immediately shined during his first professional season, earning AZL Post-Season All-Star honors after going 3-2 with a 2.77 ERA in 10 starts. The southpaw picked up where he left off in 2017, dominating in his first six outings at the South Atlantic League level, going 4-1 with a 1.80 ERA with 31 strikeouts against just five walks. At the time of his promotion, Parke was posting an impressive 67:13 strikeout-to-walk ratio.
